Declaration of Sergeant GABRIEL ALEJANDRO NIÑO-SILVA stating that he didn't meet the accuser, neither the people he is being interrogated for. Therefore, he neither knows anything regarding the facts from this enquire.

The same is stated by declarers Sergeant VIVIANA CONSUEGRA-BOLIVAR and Lieutenant GERMÁN PUENTES-GUZMÁN, Sergeant (R) ANDRÉS GABRIEL GRANADOS-FRANCO, Lieutenant Colonel (R) PEDRO MARÍA LEON-VALENZUELA and all of them only heard about the alleged illegal activity of the accuser YESID REMIGIO VARGAS-CUENCA, but they do not know about anything having to do with the facts connected with this enquire. Some of them mention other facts that are not precisely related to this enquire.

FUNDAMENTALS OF THE DECISION:

According to evidence summarized in the aforementioned paragraph, this Office finds no elements to criticize nor to reproach anybody, because if we take into consideration the content of the accusation submitted today by Lieutenant Colonel (R) YESID REMIGIO VARGAS-CUENCA under arrest, he doesn't mention anybody to whom he allegedly had given money to enable trafficking cocaine toward other countries.

Although it is true that the accuser ratifies his complain, and he emphatically denies to have offered money to anybody, it is not less certain that with such statements we can find some person presumably responsible for a punishable for Bribing, because he is limited to denounce that if he is responsible according to indictments for his extradition, there will be others that are also responsible, but without mentioning them, neither elucidating who they can be.

This Office investigated up to where it was possible which police officers could had been able to be bribed for alleged illicit activities dedicated to drug trafficking by the
